

The Winner

Pivio&Aldo De Scalzi (www.pivioaldodescalzi.com)

I wanna win at least a game in my life why don't you believe in me?
I wanna see a shiny glance in your eyes it could be the last chance for me

No more defeats, no more lies and cries money you know, come back and go maybe sometimes we've been so out of place but now I'm feeling your soul misplaced

Baby

I don't want live in this role
I don't wanna leave you alone

Baby

There is a brand new person in me
I'll never break your heart again

Baby

I don't want live in this role
I don't wanna leave you alone

Baby

There is a brand new person in me
And baby I hope that you know what I mean
You know what I mean

The game tonight is very hard to play
You know you'll believe in me Tonight I'll fight the last battle of my life sure you can bet all your coins on me

Now wait for me, I've found the lane Money, you said, cannot buy the world
maybe sometimes we've been so out of place but now I'm feeling your soul again

I don't want live in this role
I don't wanna leave you alone

Baby

There is a brand new person in me
I'll never break your heart again

Baby

I don't want live in this role
I don't wanna leave you alone

Baby

There is a brand new person in me
And baby I hope that you know what I mean
You know what I mean
